

2022-2023 Oakland, CA

Filmmaking Programs

Reel Stories is a non-profit organization created in 2013 in Oakland, CA to train and empower the next generation of gender-expansive and female filmmakers.

Workshops

Deep dive into specific filmmaking topics and strengthen your creative skills over the course of just one day!

Workshops will be held bi-monthly on Saturday or Sunday, for 4-5 hours. All equipment, tools and snacks will be provided by Reel Stories!

Ages: 12-24

Summer Camps

Get a jump start into filmmaking at Reel Stories Summer Camps.

In just one-two weeks, take your idea through story development, video production, and editing while learning about the film industry from Reel Stories mentors and guest speakers from the film industry.

*Ages: 11-25
(Program specific)*

And more...

Whether you are a parent or guardian of our alumni, a prospective donor, or a film buff who loves representation in media, we have events for you!

- Grown Folks Filmmaking Workshop: Open to adults in our community who want to experience a bit of Reel Stories! Make a film by adapting a student script during this 3-day weekend workshop!
- Screenings: Open to everyone to come watch films made at Camp Reel Stories over the past years!
